*Restrictions on volunteering in the UK (England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland)

People from outside the UK & Republic of Ireland (including EU, EEA & Swiss citizens) will be able to volunteer given the following circumstances:

- People who have settled or pre-settled status
- People who have a visa which doesn't prevent them from volunteering (check circumstances).
- Standard Visitors apart from a few exceptions (check circumstances) may volunteer for up to 30 days during their stay.
- People who are enrolled in any EU funded volunteering programme with a placement in the UK, such as Erasmus + or the European Solidarity Corps.
- Asylum seekers, including failed asylum seekers and their family members and those who have refugee status or humanitarian protection.

It is important that individual volunteers take responsibility themselves for ensuring they are allowed to volunteer. If in doubt, potential volunteers should contact the UK Border Agency for advice - www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/contact/.

*Restrictions on volunteering in the Republic of Ireland (non-UK residents)

EU/EEA & Swiss residents must apply for an Irish volunteer visa from the country in which they are legal resident; non-EU,EEA and Swiss residents must gain prior permission from the Irish Department of Justice and Equality (INIS).
