

My Corps

Your task is to design the inside of your own corps building.

It can have anything inside but it must be labelled with an explanation of how the things inside help the members show love to others.

