Hi everyone,

You may or not know that I had a full liver transplant at King's College Hospital on 19th November 2020 and after my recovery and shielding for six months, I am now back at work.

Without a doubt, the surgeons and the nursing staff, saved my life and in return I have promised to raise some money by taking part in the Great Hospital Hike on 18th September 2021. Please give whatever you can.

I have a justgiving page which is

www.justgiving.com/greathospitalhike2021-stevecatlin

Even if you only donate 1 pound to support the King's Liver Unit and myself, I would be so grateful. My sincere thanks to you all. Steve

(Carl adds – if giving over the internet is something you would prefer not to do then please pass your gift to me (in a marked envelope “Steve’s fund raising”) and we will send the gift on your behalf)

The long arm of the Lord (Wayne Watson)

A million dark alleys you can hide in
Dig a tunnel to the centre of the earth
Convinced you've got nobody to confide in
Got you questioning the sum of what you're worth
People label you the black sheep of the family
Come collect upon your prodigal reward
'Cause you can never outrun
Or go beyond the reaches
Of the long arm of the Lord
I've been ashamed—I've been humbled and forgiven
I've been chastened by my Father's loving hand
But still, at times, I go on with my evil
It seems to constitute the nature of a man
But forgiveness is as close as my confession
And my sin amputated by His sword
'Cause you can never outrun
Or go beyond the reaches
Of the long arm of the Lord
If He gave to me all that I deserve
This could be my final breath
But with compassion in His eyes
He's drawing me home
Into His arms—Into His tender arms of rest
There are pagans at the corners of creation
Making light of the salvation that we know
And with a small, narrow mind I give them over
To the passion of the Godless seed they sow
But, in truth, we have just as much potential
To be Godly and perfected by the Word
My capacity for creative sin is never extended
Past God's capacity for restoration.
