This is the kind of love Christ loves us with. All of these characteristics were evident throughout his childhood, public ministry, sufferings and death as well resurrection.

Implications:

This list is definitely overwhelming.

Well, agape love is not spontaneous.

It's not love at first sight.

It's not cheap!

We have to make an effort. But we are not alone because Christ gives us grace and the ability to love others even when we feel we feel inadequate, (Philippians 4:3).

Poem – Jesus is waiting for you.

He is the wind,

He is fire,

He is water

He is war, he is warmth and abounding

He is always and forever

And he is waiting for you

He is strength and fragility

The pool shimmering its purity

He is majestic and majesty

No folklore

Just reality

And he is waiting for you

He is the dove in its weakness

The eagle of greatness

Soaring and roaring

As the lion seeks the lamb

He is a thousand stories

The parables

And the glory

And he is waiting for you

He is your strength

He is your breath

With him I know there is no death

And he is waiting for you

He is all and everything, his love forms my world

In the storms he holds me, I rise above the seas in the celebrations he lifts me, and I praise who I believe

He forgives me completely, loves me so deeply

And he is waiting ,

you hopeful valentine,

Jesus is waiting for you. (JF)
