Many are thy guilty sins That do thy soul enthrall, But Jesus fill'd a foun-tain To take them all.

2 Thy conscience oft by danger fraught,
Stern battles with thy soul has fought
In seeking peace on Calvary bought,
When He does all forgive.

3 So deep the waters of regret
O'er sins, thy soul can ne'er forget
The long rejected Grace, and yet
He'll freely all forgive.

4 'Tis hard to tell how keen sin's woe—
Ask of the crowd its depth that know,
And turn to Him who loved you so,
He'll freely all forgive.

5 It gushed a river none could stay,
When devils trembled on that day;
That Blood can take all sin away
And freely all forgive.
