

COMPETITIONS FOR FIELD OFFICERS.

FURTHER VALUABLE PRIZES OFFERED.

NEW SERIES.—No. II. EXTENSION OF TIME-LIMIT.

We publish herewith a fresh list of subjects for competition, our aim being, as before stated, to encourage our comrades in developing their literary talents. Owing to the fact that December is a very full month for our Officers, we have decided to extend the time-limit to January 21st:—

1.—For the best Service of Song suitable for Self-Denial (competitors should specially aim at brevity, originality, and simplicity) three prizes are offered—

First	£1	10	0
Second	1	0	0
Third	0	15	0

and two Consolation Prizes of 5s. each.

2.—For the best paper on "How to Raise Money for Building Purposes," not to exceed 1,200 words, and as practical as possible, three prizes are offered—

First	£1	10	0
Second	1	0	0
Third	0	15	0

and two Consolation Prizes of 5s. each. (BRIGADIER HARMENTS, of National Headquarters, will be associated with the Adjudicators in determining the winners in this Competition).

3.—For the best Holiness Address, not exceeding 1,200 words, three prizes are offered—

First	£1	10	0
Second	1	0	0
Third	0	15	0

and Two Consolation Prizes of 5s. each.

In addition, we will award Three Books in each competition to the papers which evidence the most merit, but do not take prizes.

Papers must reach us not later than January 21st, must be written on foolscap, on one side of the paper only, and must be strictly the competitor's own work. Typewritten MSS. are, of course, to be preferred.

The style of writing should be terse, vigorous, and original. Use short sentences and avoid long words.

Officers may enter any or all of the Competitions. The papers will be judged by Lieut.-Colonel Kitching, Lieut.-Colonel Moss, and The Editor. The Judges' decision to be final.

The youngest as well as the oldest Officer will have an equal chance.

Address all letters, marking envelopes "Competition," to:—

The Editor of "The Field Officer," 101 Queen Victoria Street, London, E.C.
