Over the platform, in Stamford, is the one word — "STICK!" God grant we may ever stick to the Blood-stained banner of Calvary, stick to the blood-and-fire Flag of the Army, and stick to the fight for ever! Amen!

A small boy in a village school in Bucks, on being asked what were the races that had dominated England since the invasion of the Romans, replied, "Epsom races, Ascot races, Newmarket races, and Doncaster races." May the Lord help us to speedily grip the Juniors, and bend their young minds in the right direction.
