SOME STYLES OF PREACHING.

By THE GENERAL.

Now, by the word style, I want you to understand not only the way a man talks—the tones of his voice, the way he throws himself about when speaking, and all that sort of thing, of which I shall have something to say further on in these papers—but what is far more important still, namely, the character of the matter on which he discourses, and the particular manner in which he deals with it.

THE AMUSING STYLE.

1. The first of these objectionable styles is the Amusing. By that, I mean a sort of talking which strives to satisfy and please an audience by jokes, stories, songs, music, and the like, without regard to the promotion of its present and everlasting benefit. In a certain and very important sense, I am sure that I should condemn—and that in the most emphatic manner—any talking on a Salvation Army platform that could be correctly described as amusing.

Who would the hearers be on such an occasion? I want to know. And the answer comes back, The hearers are a miscellaneous assemblage of men and women who have come to hear a man or a woman, whom they are taught to believe is a messenger from the Almighty God, whose business it is to declare His mind to them as to how they should live, and what they should do to please Him. Some of the audience are at the time living in red-handed rebellion against Jehovah, Whose wrath may overtake them at
