OUR THIRTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

SOME FACTS FOR REFLECTION.

WHERE are the false prophets—those whose prophecies were founded on such sandy sneers as, "A flash in the pan," "A rope of sand," "Corybantic Christianity," etc.? The answer is—Where all false prophets go. Some have sunk into oblivion; others into their graves, unmourned and unwept; others to the reward of the wicked and unrighteous; while some, in sackcloth and ashes, have acknowledged their falseness, and received the forgiveness of God and man.

We might ask similar questions respecting our public critics, avowed enemies and traducers. But we refrain. In the hour of triumph the spirit of moderation is the spirit of Christ.

We are not without difficulties, burdens, sorrows, problems, and prospects of hard, up-hill fighting. We had these at the start. We have had them ever since, and shall have them; for an Army that has no foe to fight, no losses to record, and no problems to solve is in a bad way. We have still a fair share of these things, and a bigger portion than ever of the spirit to endure, go through, and win.

On the other hand, here are some facts which we lay before our readers in all modesty and fairness.

Our 35th Birthday finds us united. A deep spirit of union pervades all ranks—everywhere.

More Salvationists are at work in the world now than at any period in our history. We do not mean that our numbers merely have increased; but there is more individual, definite, regulated, and responsible work done.
