70!

GOD'S GRACIOUS GOODNESS TO OUR GENERAL.

On the 10th of April, 1829, our General first saw the light. On the 10th of April, 1899, the Army—and the world—which acknowledge the blessings with which his name will ever be associated.

The General's birthday is always a topic of cheerful and grateful reflection with THE OFFICER. "The General is the father of us all," the Chief of the Staff affectionately said on the occasion of his farewell for his present Australasian campaign. The Officer knows, loves, honours The General as a father. He conceived and created the Salvation Army. We are the children of the Army—the vast majority of us were led to Calvary by its banner. We owe all, or nearly all, we have in this world to its touching, training, and leaders. We owe our place as God's servants to it. We owe to it the platform we occupy, the crowds who listen through us to the message of hope and Salvation, the converts who love and pray for us, the men and women who haste to carry out our orders, and ten thousand joys in the present, and ten thousand hopes for the future. The General's birthday is, then, our Father's; and to-day we gather near him, in spirit, and put our birthday gifts in his hands. We bring neither gold nor silver. These luxuries are not ours to give; but we bring him the gift of THANKSGIVING. The perfume of our souls is praise. We look back, we look around, we look forward, and we see in all God's gracious goodness to our leader, and, although a cold-blooded world will be ready with a sneer when we say it, "We praise God for you more than for any other man living!" We bring the gift of PRAYER. Prayer is the pillar of faith, the Christian's
