Prayer for Palm Sunday

God of the cross, tottering down the streets of Jerusalem on a donkey,

You are not the saviour we expect.

Your power doesn't look like the power we want our God to have.

Your wisdom makes no sense to us.

We are happy to join the crowd, waving branches, but not so sure we want to follow you through this Holy Week:

into the temple courts

into the upper room into the Garden of Gethsemane to the high priest's house, to the assembly of elders, to Pilate,

to Herod,

to the place of The Skull, to the foot of the cross.

We need you to go with us on this journey.

Grant us clear vision,

Courageous hearts,

Persistent steps.

Even though we know what this week will bring, we sing:

Hosanna, hosanna.

Save us, we beseech you! Amen.

he has left

it was just a short moment he was here a glimpse only of the messiah
a shadow of what we had expected

and the few palm branches a discarded sandal is all that's left of the messianic parade

and there is only disappointment to fill the space for nothing happened heaven didn't open angelic armies didn't descend the kingdom of God did not arrive

and all hope with him the crowd thought their moment had come but it hadn't they'll turn on him for he led them on but they did not want to go

he has left
