Five Steps to Discovering and Developing Your Spiritual Gifts

"Spiritual gifts are not optional to the Christian life but absolutely necessary."

Ask God

Father, I know that the Bible tells us that we all receive gifts from You, a spiritual gift, and I understand that this is very special and different from my own natural talents or my own acquired abilities. Show me I pray, what are the special spiritual gifts that You have given me to use to the benefit of your church. I ask that You make it truly known to me and that I will use it to see Your Kingdom come. In Jesus' name I pray,

Take a Test

There are tests you can take to get a good idea of what your spiritual gifts might be. Your spiritual gifts may be out of sight, right underneath the surface. You cannot develop your spiritual gifts until you know what yours might be.

Ask Other Christians

While your spiritual gifts might seem like a mystery to you, they may be clearly obvious to those around you. Two spiritual gifts given to Christians are wisdom and discernment, and Christians with either of these two gifts can confirm the spiritual gifting that you might not even see.

Put Your Gifts Into Practice

It is not enough to discover what your spiritual gifts are. You need to put them into practice. As you practice something you'll begin to develop it.

Use Your Spiritual Gifts to Tell Others About Jesus

This is a reminder of what our overall mission is: "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations," (Matthew 28:19). Spiritual gifts are not given for our pleasure or our amusement. They are given to reach people for Jesus. So in the back of your mind, always be thinking, "how can my spiritual gifts be utilized to help people find Jesus?"

When you discover and begin to develop the spiritual gifts God has given you, you begin to see God's power flow in you through His Holy Spirit, and you will begin to see lives around you begin to be tangibly changed. There is a divine power out there for every Christian to utilize, and it comes through our spiritual gifts, so do the hard work of discovering and developing your spiritual gifts.
