In Romans 12:12, Paul writes: “Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer”.

I firmly believe that our Corps family is living out the words here. Individually, and as a group of believers, we are living lives of joy, seeking to bring hope to others including in our local community. We experience affliction in various ways, but we remain patient as we navigate our way through each of them. In recent months we have been praying more earnestly, with the Corps Prayer Furnace each Monday night giving us the opportunity to bring before God current local, national and international concerns. May we continue to follow Paul’s advice furthering our relationship with our Lord. Part of our love for Jesus is also committing to express this love in His service. Over this coming month we will be focusing our attention on the annual Self-Denial Missionary Appeal looking at the country of Estonia. Following independence in 1991, the work of The Salvation Army was safely re-established here, and this year’s appeal asks us in the United Kingdom and Ireland territory to financially support God’s ongoing mission and purpose amongst our Estonian friends. Would you consider giving as part of this appeal? The videos each Sunday will help to encourage us in this endeavour. This month also sees the start of Lent. As a Corps family we will be using the BRF Lent book “Giving it up” by Maggi Dawn to help us prepare ourselves spiritually on our journey with Jesus, towards Easter. Join with us in this whether through worship, prayer or Bible study. Finally, may I thank you all for supporting our Christmas ministry; carolling, collecting and donations to our Christmas appeal totalled around £5000. We offered support to those in need through Tesco food vouchers, toys and toiletries, as well as our continued service in the Charity Shop, the weekly Drop-In and to our Homestart families. Diolch o galon am eich cefnogaeth. Bendithied Duw i chi yn yr mis hwn i ddod. Cofion, Paul

Prayer matters...it really does!

Seek God’s strength and blessing:

- for all who come through our doors at the Corps or the Charity Shop each week.
- for those we know facing tests or medical help in these days.
- for our local community and its needs and especially for those still finding the cost of living difficult.
- for political and community leaders, that they may seek wisdom in all their dealings/actions.
