THOUGHT:

The New Year is here and the time for reflection and forward planning has arrived. I like to think of Janus, the Greek god of new beginnings, with his two faces. One face looks back over the old year and the other face looks forward into the new year.

May we each look ahead relying on the promises of God - after all there are 18,810 of them— and 7,487 of them are God's promises made to humankind. Here is one to take forward into 2026

Jeremiah 29:13 records - You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.
