

FAITH IN ACTION IN THE NEWS

Here are some of the things we have been doing!

HURRICANE IN THE BAHAMAS Relief operations continue to grow.

Junior soldier Akeem (16) is just one of the many volunteers helping others recover from the worst storm ever to hit the islands.

IS IT SLAVE-FREE?

Campaign against modern slavery. The Salvation Army calls on people to #askthequestion, to make sure that the goods they buy are slave free. This includes services from people like nail bars and car washes as modern slavery numbers continue to rise in the UK.

RARE BREEDS CENTRE

Caring for the UK's rarest goats, pigs and geese!

The Salvation Army's Hadleigh Farm has become a Conservation Farm Park and is leading the way for rare breeds, caring for more than 100 animals. The farm also includes a visitor centre and a training centre for adults with additional support needs.

FREE COATS!

Helping struggling families.

This winter a community project has provided free coats for children and adults. The clothing rail is available during the foodbank collection time. The officer said, 'We know a lot of people are struggling financially and can't afford new coats.'

GOOD NEIGHBOURS

This project has been really popular, with volunteers now visiting and befriending lonely and isolated older people right across the city.

COMMUNITY SHARES

Business is booming in Kenya!

The Salvation Army is helping people in poorer communities to start their own businesses. It is creating self-help groups and giving support, training and advice. Members give a small amount of money each month build up a communal fund. They can then borrow from it to build their business. They are supporting and helping each other to succeed.

CHURCH OPENS DOORS

Emergency shelter for rough sleepers.

During the winter and bad weather, the church is open at night for homeless people to sleep safely. The officer said, 'Providing safe and warm shelter for the most vulnerable is at the core of what we do.'
